

What Customers Are Saying About Devo

Gives us one pane of glass to query all our log data, making investigations much more efficient.

The querying and the log-retention capabilities are pretty powerful. Those provide some of the biggest value-add for us.

Director of Security at a tech company with 501-1,000 employees

Fantastic “Brain Transpant” For Your SOC/SIRT.

Excellent upgrade from a more legacy player in the space. This platform has allowed us to decommission and consolidate across multiple SIEMs and regions. Additionally, we have been able to bring on new service lines to our analytics team and automate actions that were previously manual. The platform makes it very easy to create new custom queries as well, which in turn makes it easier for analysts to create custom use cases (such as for hunting).

Security Delivery Sr. Mgr., Cyber Solutions Architect/Engineer at a tech services company with 10,001+ employees

Devo Help Higher Ed Level Up Their SIEM Game.

The end to end experience with Devo, from pre-sales to post-sales, was very smooth and they stood by us the whole way. They were patient and helped us with vendor comparisons, lengthy trials and proof of values, and worked with out teams to ensure that we were familiar with the product. It's a game changer for the SIEM industry and the data science is going to take our operations to the next level.

Security and Risk Management professional in public education system with 5,000+ users

True multi-tenancy, flexible, responsive support, and offers real-time search capabilities.

Devo helps us to unlock the full power of our data because they have more than 450 parsers, which means that we can ingest pretty much any type of log data.

Kevin Golas, Director of World Wide Security Services at an information management company with 10,000-15,000 employees
